ORDER

On this day came on to be considered the motion of Defendant Margaret Brown for leave to modify the scheduling order in the above-styled action (D.E. 40, 41, seeking to modify the scheduling order at D.E. 12). Defendant Brown's motion is hereby DENIED. The scheduling order entered by the Court on October 5, 2007 remains in place in this case. The dispositive motion deadline in the case remains set for June 15, 2007, and the trial in the case remains set for September 5, 2007. (D.E. 12, Scheduling Order, ¶¶ 1, 4).<sup>1</sup>

SIGNED and ENTERED on this 3rd day of August, 2007.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Janis Graham Jack", is written over a horizontal line.

<sup>1</sup>The Court notes that the scheduling order sets the discovery deadline in the case for June 29, 2007. However, certain parties have agreed to extend the discovery deadline to August 20, 2007. Per the General Order in this case, the parties may extend the discovery deadline by agreement. (D.E. 13, General Order, ¶ 1(B)). However, the parties may not extend the dispositive motion or trial deadline even by agreement, and the Court explicitly does not grant the parties leave to modify those deadlines. (Id., ¶ 1(A)). The dispositive motion deadline remains set for June 15, 2007 (which has already passed) and the trial date remains set for September 5, 2007. (D.E. 12, Scheduling Order, ¶¶ 1, 4).
